My Dear Engelmann

I ought to have responded to your kind letter of the 27th before this. It shocked us greatly, to think of the imminent danger George was in. Please let us still know how he gets on. Your anxious you & Mrs. Engelmann must have been.

I hope all is right now.

Yesterday came an order to send you
two pots (all left here) of Cantrop's Fasciola. So I emp= tied out the pitcher-pots here, which had got filled with things for
you. — and all are on the way, — to your old climate — for when the are here, where our lowest has been + 7.°

I shall not be able to add, more than have already — to the Conifers structure;
unless I take it up with a study which I can= not make now.

I have this week to polish up a little Memoir of Asa Gray,
and go to Washing=

week. About a week of interruption, I suppose.

We got home last night from Washington — stopping over one day with the Canby's and over Sunday with the Redfields. Mrs. Gray saw Mrs. Hilgard in N. and heard that Jessie was not doing well. But what a time you have had! and what serious loss to Jessie & distress to you all, at the last! We are much concerned for you all. But I hope you now know the worst.

And what cold weather we merely & hardly touch 2 cw.

We have to bring up the correspondence accumulated & then — to finish Text Book and A. Gray

Miss Lister from Burnham came this morning; and I will not answer it till you return it

What you think of B. is very like the O. Monardensis pinnipinnum. But we have no male flowers, which would settle it, as Bentham seems to think. Can you spare any male flowers to send to Bentham.

It is 9 years since, & yet full of good work.

I hope to hear good news of you & Ceylon.

And always Yours A. Gray

I have neglected writing & to you a good deal. But when I was very busy and I knew you knew. Then I had for weeks a head-ache Asa & Mrs. Gray had an influenza with a regular fever — a quotidian. & was kept in bed — got about too soon, & got knocked up. & is still feeble, but really convalescent. Hoping to get strong just so as to go with me on a trip South to Mts. Carol. with Canby, Redfield, & this time Sargent.

It was to have been three when ever Shuttleworth Mossman Asa & Mrs Gray Stole a march on us by leaving in Mid, & now got it, without flowers, near Lincolnton. Then we are to explore the east side of Blue Ridge, from the base

Black Mt. to Grandfather, and then cross to Roan —

Dear Sr. Engelmann.

I had been hoping you could come to Cambridge. And as it seems you can't go to any ordinary place of rest & coolness till you go to the Calif. Sierra & Pacific, why the case is clear. Come to us, where there is room & to spare. — a welcome you can never exhaust. — Rocks, plants, & everything. — & you can read proofs &c, — & cannot go to the last. You can be with you as much as he will, & go to the Isle of Shoals — or elsewhere on the coast — for sea-bathing! & you — you with him — if & as, as pleases you. My wife urgently requests you to come to us, Your old & dear friend

We are just home this morning & find here yours of 27th June — Also this letter of Bentham's, which I forward. You can write to him. We are both well & hearty. I vastly honor for the journey & Mrs. Gray will be the same after a day or two of rest. It is she had some hard travel

Well, come to us as soon as you possibly can. Gray will not like to have you behind. Tell him to come to us at once — then pick the flora — stow at his leisure. You should not be done upon Gerard for letting us know how you were — the simplest duty to us old friends, who could not but jump at the chance of having you here, and I wanted, too, to help along Botany. Why could you not pack up a big box full of specimens & mem. & use them here? But I know it is a great bother. And I like you, can walk miles with my summings up. —

Interesting & curious — about the Grape-Diagnoses! For you think the Catalpa a a end up! — I doubt?

It was pleasant to get your lovely and a speedy letter and to know that you had a pretty good journey. The letter to Lieut. C. St. Lt. McCauley, U.S. Cavalry is gone on to his father. I suspect they will want the young man for a while; to visit Indians. The Storms leave to-day. Weather nice.

To-day came from Sisson two pendent branches of the Douglas Spruce — one we keep & put here. I send you the other, and one of the cones & other branches that came with it.

The Vernonia Lettermanii

I had only fragments from a fine specimen in herb. Torrey, collected by Dr. J. M. Bigelow on "Corpus Creek, Arkansas" — perhaps near Letterman's Station. I should like a determined specimen. In my Mss. of Syn. Fl. N. Am. I had made it V. Lindheimeri, var. stenodes. But, having turned up again, I suppose, in the absence of intermediates, it is a fair species & one I had best adopt it from you (with your name) Letterman should have permitted to communicate his name in Botany

Is the friend of his name ?
